

Japanese Kite Lecture & Demonstration

和 wadako 凧

Japanese Traditional Kite

Wednesday, August 6th
12:00 p.m.-1:00 p.m.

The Pavillion at Stapleton Central Park

(8601 E Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd., Denver, CO 80238)

Free Admission/All ages are welcome

Kite Master Mikio Toki and Kite Artist Scott Skinner will present a lecture and demonstrate decorating of traditional Tokyo style kites.

Mikio Toki:

Mr. Toki is internationally famous as a grand-master of Edo kitemaking. His kites have been exhibited at galleries in 14 countries and more than a dozen U.S. cities. They are not only good for flying, but also beautiful works of art. This is his first appearance in Colorado.

Scott Skinner:

Mr. Skinner is a 1975 graduate of the U.S. Air Force Academy. He is an award-winning kitemaster, combining shapes of Japanese kites with traditional American patchwork patterns.

For more information, please contact
E-mail: cgjd-pr@de.mofa.go.jp

Presented by

Don't miss other 1st Annual Japanese Kite Festival events from our partners.

★Japanese Kite Making Workshop
August 5th, 9:00-11:00 a.m.
or 1:00-3:00p.m.

For registration, www.jascolorado.org (303)592-5364

★Japanese Kite Flying Festival
August 6th, 11:00-3:00 p.m.

